FULL TIME TEACHER OF ECONOMICS AND ANOTHER RELEVANT IB SUBJECT

The Role

UWC Atlantic College is a founding member of a global education movement based upon the ideas of Kurt Hahn.

The style of teaching has to make full allowance for the fact that our students, aged 16 - 19 years old, come from different educational systems and different cultures with different experiences of the subject areas. The richness of student experience, culture and background is a resource in this college.

In addition to the teaching commitment, UWC Atlantic has an extensive co-curricular programme of community service, activities, student-led conferences and project week. All teachers are expected to fully participate in these activities, including helping and leading aspects of the broader curriculum.

All teachers take on a wellbeing tutorial role and will typically be responsible for supporting approximately 10 tutees. Tutors are the main point of contacts for parents. The weekly timetable has scheduled tutorial meetings but in addition to these tutors are expected to arrange for individual sessions with their tutees and follow their progress and provide regular support.

The College operates on a semester system. The Autumn Term ends in early December and the Spring Term runs from early January to the middle of June. Please note that our holiday periods are different from other schools and that we are operational during bank holidays (with the exception of Good Friday, Easter Monday, Christmas holidays). There is a break of approximately 9 weeks from the middle of June to mid-August for Summer, a break of approximately 4 weeks from end of the 1st week in December to January, October Half Term (1 week) and a Spring Break (1 week). Holiday periods are determined by the IB examination periods.

Conditions of Service

Core Working Hours
Approximately 35 hours per week including teaching, personal tutor duties, extended essay supervision, meeting participation and faculty duties as required. There is a requirement to undertake hours in relation to the co-curricular programme. Please note, working hours are subject to variation and review according to the needs of the college. The wellbeing support that we offer to our students is a crucial part of all our teaching roles and teachers are expected to fully participate in all aspects of the student experience.
